

Manufacturer's Certification Statement

Get up to $1,500
in tax credit
on select Kasson and Keller energy-efficient products

In accordance with The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, home-owners who purchase windows or doors meeting or exceeding certain energy-efficiency requirements are eligible for a tax credit. The windows or doors must have a U-factor of 0.30 or lower and a Solar Heat Gain Coefficient of 0.30 or lower to qualify for the tax credit.

By purchasing qualifying products, a home-owner can receive a tax credit of up to 30% of the cost of the qualifying products with a maximum credit of $1500.

Kasson and Keller is proud to offer numerous products which meet the energy-efficiency qualifications required for tax credit eligibility:
